

CIDA and Business Link in London present:

Social Enterprise Finance Seminar

Tuesday 28 October 2008, 6pm – 9pm
Coin Street neighbourhood centre
London SE1 9NH
Free

Everything you need to know about finance for social enterprises

Business Link in London and CIDA are working together to bring you this dynamic seminar and networking event to provide essential information on the right sources of finance for your new or existing creative social enterprise.

The event will be hosted by Uday Thakkar (Managing Director, Red Ochre winner of Social Enterprise of the Year), with presentations from Paul Nicoll (Regional Manager, Triodos Bank), Nigel Wilkinson (Enterprise Training Manager, London Rebuilding Society) and case studies from Auro Foxcroft (Director, Village Underground) and Laura Williams (Creator, Aluna Project).

The event will also offer a unique opportunity to meet and network with leading social enterprise lenders, investors and support agencies.

Exhibitors include: CDFA (Community Development Finance Association), The Social Enterprise Loan Fund, Adventure Capital Fund, Social Enterprise London, Knowledge Connect, Business Link in London and Social Enterprise Coalition.

Who can attend

---

- > Are you in need of raising finance for your social enterprise?
- > Not sure if a high street bank will lend you money?
- > Can you attract an investor?

This event is ideal for London based start-ups and established social enterprises.
